

[PUBLIC LAW 721—80TH CONGRESS]

[CHAPTER 552—2D SESSION]

[H. R. 6229]

AN ACT

To authorize the extension of leases of certain land in the Territory of Hawaii.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That where a lessee of water-front lands in the Territory of Hawaii under lease on April 1, 1946, has spent substantial sums in repairing or replacing improvements on such lands damaged or destroyed by the tidal wave of that date, then notwithstanding any provision of the Organic Act of Hawaii (31 Stat. 141), as amended, or of the laws of the Territory of Hawaii, the Commissioner of Public Lands of the Territory of Hawaii, at the request of the lessee, in his discretion may extend the term of the lease at the original rental: Provided, That no lease is extended beyond March 31, 1967.

Approved June 19, 1948.
